Sb1 Federal Credit Union Announces New Senior Vice President/Chief Lending Officer

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – Sb1 Federal Credit Union is excited to announce the selection of Anthony Silvi as the credit union's new Senior Vice President/Chief Lending Officer.

"We are pleased to have Anthony take on the role of Senior Vice President/Chief Lending Officer," said Rob Werner, President/Chief Executive Officer. "Anthony brings extensive financial and management experience to the credit union and will help us continue to offer innovative lending products and services to our membership."

Anthony has served as the Vice President/Financial Services of Freedom Credit Union in Warminster, Pennsylvania since December 2002. He was previously the Senior Vice President/Lending at First Penn Bank in Feasterville, Pennsylvania and has also served as the Vice President/Regional Manager at Lumbermens Mortgage Corp in Union, New Jersey. While at Freedom Credit Union, he was responsible for creating a full service title agency CUSO, expanding and increasing auto lending by implementing a successful indirect lending program, introducing a debt management counseling program, and starting a business lending program at the credit union. Anthony holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance from St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and has the designation of a Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) from the American College of Bryn Mawr in Pennsylvania. He currently serves as the Director of the Credit Union Executive Society (CUES).

"Anthony is a remarkable executive with a unique vision and drive that will ensure our continued success. We are looking forward to working with Anthony to provide quality financial services and diverse products to exceed our membership's expectations," said Werner.

About Sb1 Federal Credit Union

Sb1 Federal Credit Union, with over $600 million in assets, was originally founded in 1977 by the employees of the SmithKline Corporation. Over time, Sb1 has evolved into a full-service, member-oriented financial institution servicing over one hundred companies across the country. Through the years, Sb1 has developed a full line of accounts and products to meet all your needs: including savings accounts, checking accounts, personal loans, mortgages, business loans, and investments. With its nine branch locations, Sb1 has a nationwide membership base and presently serves the employees, retirees, and family members of their expanding list of Select Employer Groups (SEGs). In addition, Sb1 serves anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in select Philadelphia zip codes. Whether you're looking for higher rates, fewer fees, or a safer place to keep your money, Sb1 offers you and your family a great option. For more information, please visit <https://www.sb1fcu.org/>.
