About UMassFive College Federal Credit Union

UMassFive College Federal Credit Union was founded in 1967 by a handful of employees at the flagship campus of the University of Massachusetts, located in Amherst, MA. In 1971, Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges were incorporated into their field membership. Starting out as a one-room operation on the UMass Amherst campus, UMassFive has grown to a full-service financial institution with five physical branches, a full-service contact center, and a robust online presence. Today, still staying true to their mission of putting the interests of their membership first and their vision of maintaining their strong credit union heritage, UMassFive serves over 40 different sponsor organizations and has expanded to a membership of over 36,600 and more than $463 million in assets.
