About Mazuma Credit Union

Mazuma Credit Union, has been a Kansas City staple for 70 years. Since their humble start in 1948 as The Kansas City National Federation of Federal Employees Credit Union, Mazuma's assets have grown to over $660 million and the credit union serves a membership of more than 64,000 members. On their 50th anniversary, the credit union changed their name to Mazuma Credit Union and continues the tradition of giving back by taking an active role in community development, financial education, and the arts. The credit union's purpose has been simple, it's all about making members happy, and making Kansas City a better place to live, work, and bank.
